Presenter:

Kristen Orsini-Walker, Reiki Master Teacher, E-RYT chair yoga instructor, Certified Circlework® Facilitator and founder of KOHA, has been working in the fields of wellness, group facilitation and mindfulness since 2011. Using her various training and field experience, she creates and facilitates programs and workshops that support KOHA's mission: "To foster a deeper self-awareness in others, giving them greater command over their unique capabilities so they may flourish, fortifying the communities they reside and work in." As someone who struggled with depression, anxiety and stress, Kristen originally sought out these wellness tools for herself. After seeing how much relief they gave her, she decided to dedicate her life and work to sharing these tools with others so they may cultivate peace and empowerment in their own lives.
