The Reyes family, once a tight-knit unit, is torn apart by the tragic loss of their beloved matriarch, Mami. In the wake of her passing, each family member struggles to cope with their grief and find their own path forward.

Laura, the eldest daughter, harbors a secret that weighs heavily on her heart. Haunted by the memory of a long-lost love, she retreats into herself, seeking solace in the pages of her mother's journals.

Junior, the rebellious son, lashes out at the world, unable to reconcile his anger with the loss he feels. He seeks refuge in drugs and dangerous escapades, hoping to numb the pain.

Ana, the youngest daughter, struggles to make sense of her mother's absence. Lost and alone, she turns to her older siblings for guidance, only to find that they are struggling with their own demons.
