A Memoir of Love, Travel, and Loss

In this deeply moving memoir, a woman recounts her travels with her husband, their love for each other, and her grief after his sudden death.

The author, who was a successful travel writer, weaves together stories of her travels with her husband with reflections on their relationship and her grief. She writes about the joy of exploring new places together, the challenges they faced along the way, and the heartbreak of losing her soulmate.

This is a beautifully written and deeply personal memoir that will resonate with anyone who has ever loved and lost.
